RE KGABA KA DIRATSWANA MEDIA BREAKFAST

19 NOVEMBER 2013

The Honourable MEC for Agriculture and Rural Development, Mamiki Qabathe, is rolling out Re Kgaba Ka Diratswana Programme and also introducing the Digital Strategy by handing out tablets to the District and Town Coordinators.

Re Kgaba Ka Diratswana is an initiative created by the Department of Agriculture and Rural Development in the Free State to create the legacy of food wealth and self-sufficiency within Free State communities..

Re Kgaba Ka Diratswana is aimed at alleviating food insecurity through production of Food Crops and the Beautification of Gardens. This is a plan geared to fight poverty and price escalations on food and decreasing food production in the country.

The details of the event are as follows:

Date: 21 November 2013

Venue: Havinia Golf Club Hall (near Tikwe Lodge), Highlands Str
Virginia

Time: 08h00

Your Media House is invited to grace the event.
